Rule 45, Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, Parts C & D:(c) PROTECTION OF PERSONS SUBJECT TO SUBPOENAS.

(1) A party or an attorney responsible for the issuance and service of a subpoena shall take reasonable steps to avoid imposing undue burden or expense on a person subject to that subpoena. The court on behalf of which the subpoena was issued shall enforce this duty and impose upon the party or attorney in breach of this duty an appropriate sanction which may include, but is not limited to, lost earnings and reasonable attorney's fee.

(2) (A) A person commanded to produce and permit inspection and copying of designated books, papers, documents or tangible things, or inspection of premises need not appear in person at the place of production or inspection unless commanded to appear for deposition, hearing or trial.

(B) Subject to paragraph (d) (2) of this rule, a person commanded to produce and permit inspection and copying may, within 14 days after service of subpoena or before the time specified for compliance if such time is less than 14 days after service, serve upon the party or attorney designated in the subpoena written objection to inspection or copying of any or all of the designated materials or of the premises. If objection is made, the party serving the subpoena shall not be entitled to inspect and copy materials or inspect the premises except pursuant to an order of the court by which the subpoena was issued. If objection has been made, the party serving the subpoena may, upon notice to the person commanded to produce, move at any time for an order to compel the production. Such an order to compel production shall protect any person who is not a party or an officer of a party from significant expense resulting from the inspection and copying commanded.

(3) (A) On timely motion, the court by which a subpoena was issued shall quash or modify the subpoena if it

(i) fails to allow reasonable time for compliance,

(ii) requires a person who is not a party or an officer of a party to travel to a place more than 100 miles from the place where that person resides, is employed or regularly transacts business in person, except that, subject to the provisions of clause (c) (3) (B) (iii) of this rule, such a person may in order to attend trial be commanded to travel from any such place within the state in which the trial is held, or

(iii) requires disclosure of privileged or other protected matter and no exception or waiver applies, or

(iv) subjects a person to undue burden.

(B) If a subpoena

(i) requires disclosure of a trade secret or other confidential research, development, or commercial information, or

(ii) requires disclosure of an unretained expert's opinion or information not describing specific events or occurrences in dispute and resulting from the expert's study made not at the request of any party, or

(iii) requires a person who is not a party or an officer of a party to incur substantial expense to travel more than 100 miles to attend trial, the court may, to protect a person subject to or affected by the subpoena, quash or modify the subpoena, or, if the party in whose behalf the subpoena is issued shows a substantial need for the testimony or material that cannot be otherwise met without undue hardship and assures that the person to whom the subpoena is addressed will be reasonably compensated, the court may order appearance or production only upon specified conditions.

(d) DUTIES IN RESPONDING TO SUBPOENA.

(1) A person responding to a subpoena to produce documents shall produce them as they are kept in the usual course of business or shall organize and label them to correspond with the categories in the demand.

(2) When information subject to a subpoena is withheld on a claim that it is privileged or subject to protection as trial preparation materials, the claim shall be made expressly and shall be supported by a description of the nature of the documents, communications, or things not produced that is sufficient to enable the demanding party to contest the claim.

STIPULATED PROTECTIVE ORDER REGARDING CONFIDENTIALITY OF DISCOVERY MATERIAL

Whereas, the parties, through their respective counsel, have met and conferred and have stipulated that certain discovery and disclosure of information in this Action shall be treated as confidential according to the terms and conditions of this Order. Accordingly, it is hereby ORDERED:

SCOPE

1. This Order shall apply to all information and things exchanged by any party, including, but not limited to, all documents and things produced in the course of discovery, all answers to interrogatories, all answers to requests for admission, all responses to requests for production of documents and things, and all deposition testimony and deposition exhibits, and any other papers produced, filed, generated or served by a party in this litigation ("Discovery Material").

DESIGNATION

2. Any Producing Party may designate Discovery Material as "CONFIDENTIAL" or as "HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL" in accordance with this Order. The burden of establishing that Discovery Material is CONFIDENTIAL or HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL as defined herein shall be on the Producing Party. The designation of any Discovery Material as CONFIDENTIAL or HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL shall be deemed effective unless and until the Court orders otherwise or the Producing Party withdraws the designation.

3. Discovery Material falling into one or more of the following categories may be designated as CONFIDENTIAL: (i) sensitive technical information that is not publicly available and that is not expressly contained in public information; and (ii) sensitive business or financial information that is not publicly available and that is not expressly contained in public information.

4. Discovery Material falling into one or more of the following categories may be designated as HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL: (i) proprietary research and development and/or highly sensitive technical information that is not publicly available; (ii) highly sensitive business-related financial or commercial information that is not publicly available and that is not expressly contained in public information; (iii) trade secrets; and (iv) unpublished patent applications and patent prosecution documents that are not available upon request from the U.S. Patent and Trademark Office or any other patent office.

5. The Producing Party may designate documents or other Discovery Material as CONFIDENTIAL or HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL by placing either of the following legends or similar legends on the document or thing: CONFIDENTIAL – SUBJECT TO PROTECTIVE ORDER or HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL – SUBJECT TO PROTECTIVE ORDER. In the event that CONFIDENTIAL or HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL material is produced for inspection at a party's facility, such CONFIDENTIAL or HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL material may be produced for inspection before being marked confidential. Once specific CONFIDENTIAL or HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL material has been designated for copying, any CONFIDENTIAL or HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL material will then be marked confidential after copying but before delivery to the Receiving Party. There will be no waiver of confidentiality by the inspection of CONFIDENTIAL or HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL material before it is copied and marked confidential pursuant to this Order.

6. Any party or non-party may designate discovery requests or responses (and the information contained therein) as CONFIDENTIAL or as HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL by placing either of the following legends or similar legends on the face of any such document:

"Contains CONFIDENTIAL information. Designated parts not to be used, copied or disclosed except as authorized by Court Order or the party or parties whose CONFIDENTIAL information is included;" or

"Contains HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL information. Designated parts not to be used, copied or disclosed except as authorized by Court Order or the party or parties whose HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL information is included."

In the case of discovery requests or responses, a statement may also be included within the document specifying the portion(s) thereof designated as CONFIDENTIAL or as HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL.

7. Any party or non-party may designate depositions and other testimony (including exhibits) as CONFIDENTIAL or as HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL by stating on the record at the time the testimony is given that the entire testimony or portions thereof shall be designated as CONFIDENTIAL or as HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL, or designate as such within twenty-one (21) calendar days after receipt of the transcript. If no such designation is made on the record at the time of the testimony, the testimony will be treated as HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL up until the twenty-one (21) day period for designation has expired. The following legends or similar legends shall be placed on the front of any deposition transcript (and, if videotaped, any copies of the videotape) containing CONFIDENTIAL or HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL information:

“Contains CONFIDENTIAL information. Designated parts not to be used, copied or disclosed except as authorized by Court Order or the party or parties whose CONFIDENTIAL information is included;” or

“Contains HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL information. Designated parts not to be used, copied or disclosed except as authorized by Court Order or the party or parties whose HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL information is included.”

8. Subject to any overriding rules imposed by the Court in this Action, all CONFIDENTIAL or HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL material, or any excerpt, reproduction or paraphrase thereof, filed with the Court shall be filed in a sealed envelope or other appropriate sealed container on which the following shall be endorsed: (i) the caption of this Action; (ii) the words “CONFIDENTIAL – Restricted Access According to Court Order” or “HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL – Restricted Access According to Court Order” as an indication of the nature of the content; and (iii) a statement in substantially the following form:

“This envelope, containing documents which are filed in this case by (name of party), is not to be opened or the contents thereof to be displayed or revealed except by Order of Court or consent of the parties.”

The Clerk of Court is directed to maintain under seal all material filed in this Action which has been marked or designated, in whole or in part, as CONFIDENTIAL or as HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL and filed in accordance with this Paragraph. The sealed material shall not be opened or released from the custody of the Clerk of Court except by order of the Court and except that outside counsel of record for any party may have access thereto by request to the Clerk of Court at any time during Court hours.

USE

9. Any and all material designated as CONFIDENTIAL or HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL under this Order shall not be used or disclosed by the parties or counsel for the parties or any persons identified in Paragraphs 12-16 below for any purposes whatsoever other than preparing for and conducting this Action (including appeals).

10. Except as provided in Paragraphs 12-16 below, counsel for the parties shall keep all material designated as CONFIDENTIAL or HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL and received under this Order secure within their exclusive possession and shall take reasonable efforts to place such documents in a secure area.

11. All copies, duplicates, extracts, summaries, or descriptions (hereinafter referred to collectively as "copies") of material designated as CONFIDENTIAL or HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL under this Order or any portion thereof, shall be immediately affixed with the words "CONFIDENTIAL – SUBJECT TO PROTECTIVE ORDER" or "HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL – SUBJECT TO PROTECTIVE ORDER" if those words do not already appear.

For purposes of this Order, Continuation Patent Prosecution shall be defined as preparing, drafting, reviewing, filing, or responding to office actions, signing oaths or declarations, or prosecuting in any pending or future patent application, or assisting in any of those activities, with respect to any continuations, continuations-in-part, divisionals, foreign counterparts, reissues, or re-examinations of any of the patents asserted in the current litigation or any of the parents (grand-parents or other predecessor applications) thereof, including: (i) applications based on U.S. Patent No. 5,553,852 including, but not limited to, Reissue Application Nos. 11/111,974 and 10/183,147; (ii) applications based on U.S. Patent No. 6,634,961 including, but not limited to, Application Nos. 10/635,603, 10/635,610, 11/042,481, and 11/042,482; and (iii) applications based on U.S. Patent No. 6,780,125 including, but not limited to, Application Nos. 09/511,898, 09/764,139, and 09/764,307. The biographical sketch shall include a curriculum vitae or equivalent resume setting forth such person's present residence and business address(es), current employer and job title, any company or companies by which that individual was employed during the past four (4) years, and a list of all consulting agreements or arrangements that said individual may have entered into during the past four (4) years that involved or related to golf balls or the manufacture of golf balls. The list should disclose the name and address of each such entity for which consulting work is being, or has been, performed, and the general subject matter of that consulting work. If disclosure of either the identity of the entity for which the work is being performed or the subject matter of that work, or both, is deemed proprietary by the Receiving Party, then the fact that certain information is being withheld on the basis that it is proprietary shall be disclosed by the Receiving Party, and any such information that is not deemed proprietary shall be disclosed. In the event that said individual enters into any subsequent consulting agreements or arrangements, the Receiving Party shall promptly notify the Producing Party of such agreements or arrangements. A party's consent to permitting disclosure of its confidential information by a retained expert of the other party shall not be unreasonably withheld. If a party objects, within ten (10) calendar days of receipt of written notice, biographical sketch and written commitment, to such expert having access to any CONFIDENTIAL or HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL material, the expert shall be barred from such access for a twenty (20) calendar day period running from the date the expert was identified in writing to the Producing Party (together with the expert's biographical sketch and written commitment). If within that twenty (20) calendar day period (1) the parties are unable to resolve their differences and (2) the opposing party moves for a further protective order, then the CONFIDENTIAL or HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL material shall not be provided to said expert until the Court rules on the motion for further protective order.

INADVERTENT PRODUCTION / DESIGNATION

17. The inadvertent production of documents subject to the attorney-client privilege or the attorney work-product doctrine will not waive the attorney-client privilege or the attorney work-product doctrine. In addition, the fact that a document was inadvertently produced shall not be used in any manner as evidence in support of any such alleged waiver. Upon a request from a party that has inadvertently produced any document which it believes may be subject to the attorney-client privilege or attorney work-product doctrine, each party receiving said document shall return it and all copies within three (3) business days to the Producing Party. Nothing herein shall prevent the Receiving Party from preparing a record for its own use containing the date, author, address(es), and topic of the document and such other information as is reasonably necessary to identify the document and describe its nature to the Court in any motion to compel production of the document. Such a record of the identity and nature of a document may not be used for any purpose other than preparation of a motion to compel in this Action. After the return of the document(s), the Receiving Party may challenge the Producing Party's claim(s) of privilege or work-product by making a motion to the Court.

18. Inadvertent disclosure of material without designating the same as CONFIDENTIAL or HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL shall not be deemed a waiver of confidentiality with regard to similar or related information, nor shall it be deemed a waiver of confidentiality with regard to the information inadvertently disclosed if promptly called to the attention of counsel for the Receiving Party who shall make every effort to retrieve the inadvertently disclosed information and prevent disclosure by each unauthorized recipient. If information designated as CONFIDENTIAL or HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL in accordance with this Order is inadvertently disclosed to a person not authorized by this Order, the party who becomes aware of the disclosure shall immediately inform the other party of all pertinent facts relating to such disclosure and shall make every effort to retrieve the inadvertently disclosed information and prevent disclosure by each unauthorized recipient. The Receiving Party shall take reasonable steps to, at the Producing Party's option, either ensure that all copies of any such Discovery Materials are returned promptly to the Producing Party or ensure that all copies of any such Discovery Materials are marked with the proper designation and distributed only as permitted under this Order.

PARTY SEEKING GREATER PROTECTION MUST OBTAIN FURTHER ORDER

19. No information may be withheld from discovery on the ground that the material to be disclosed requires protection greater than that afforded by this Order unless the party claiming a need for greater protection moves for an order providing such special protection pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 26(c).

CHALLENGING DESIGNATION OF CONFIDENTIALITY

20. Any party through its counsel may assert that particular information designated by the other party as CONFIDENTIAL or HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL is in fact publicly known or is otherwise not CONFIDENTIAL or HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL and hence should not be subject to the designated protection hereunder. Such assertion, if made, will be discussed between counsel. If agreement cannot be reached, the designation of confidentiality in dispute may be challenged upon motion and the confidentiality of the information shall be maintained unless the Court orders otherwise. The burden of proving the confidentiality of designated information remains with the party asserting such confidentiality.

21. The restrictions placed by this Order on a Receiving Party shall not apply to any information that, in its entirety:

- a. is at the time of disclosure hereunder, or thereafter becomes, a part of the public domain through no act or omission by the Receiving Party, its counsel or its employees;
- b. is subsequently independently developed by the Receiving Party;
- c. is lawfully in the possession of a person who is not subject to an obligation to maintain it in confidence; and/or
- d. is hereafter lawfully disclosed to the Receiving Party by a third party which did not acquire the information under an obligation of confidentiality from or through the Producing Party.

THIRD-PARTY DISCOVERY MATERIALS

22. It is expressly contemplated and agreed that the terms of this Order are applicable to CONFIDENTIAL or HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL material submitted by a non-party, and/or produced by a non-party in connection with this Action, and that the parties will treat all CONFIDENTIAL or HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL material of a non-party in accordance with the terms of this Order.

USE IN COURTROOM PROCEEDINGS

23. Any information designated as CONFIDENTIAL or HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL hereunder and produced to another party during discovery herein, if otherwise admissible, may be offered in evidence or otherwise used at the trial of this case, by either party, subject to such further order as the Court may enter to protect such information.

RETURN / DESTRUCTION OF MATERIALS

24. Within sixty (60) calendar days of the conclusion of the above-captioned case (including all appeals), all material treated as CONFIDENTIAL or HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL under this Order and not received in evidence shall be returned to the Producing Party, except that each parties' outside counsel may maintain all papers filed with the Court, transcripts of testimony and their own memoranda containing confidential information for archival purposes. The party receiving any CONFIDENTIAL or HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL material shall certify in writing that all such material, including CONFIDENTIAL or HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL material disclosed hereunder, has been returned or destroyed. The Clerk of the Court may return to counsel for the parties, or destroy, any sealed material at the end of the litigation, including any appeals.

MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

25. Nothing in this Order shall be deemed a waiver of any party's rights, if any, to oppose production of any information or documents, for example, because of lack of timeliness, relevance or materiality, because the party asserts an obligation not to disclose information received from third parties, and/or because privileged or work product information is sought.

26. Prompt written notice shall be given to any party who produced CONFIDENTIAL or HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL material hereunder, in the event that party's CONFIDENTIAL or HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL material is sought by any person not a party to this litigation, by subpoena in another action, or by service with any legal process. Any person seeking such CONFIDENTIAL or HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL material who takes action to enforce such subpoena or other legal process shall be apprised of this Order. Nothing herein shall be construed as requiring anyone covered by this Order to contest a subpoena or other process, to appeal any order requiring productions of CONFIDENTIAL or HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL material covered by this Order, or to subject itself to penalties for noncompliance with any legal process or order.

27. This Order may be changed only by the written agreement of the parties or further order of the Court, and is without prejudice to the rights of a party to seek relief from or variation of any of its provisions.

28. Subject to Paragraphs 26 and 27 above, the remaining provisions of this Order, including the obligations to maintain confidentiality embodied herein, shall survive the termination of this Action and continue in full force and effect.

29. Nothing in this Order shall bar or otherwise restrict counsel from rendering advice to his or her client with respect to the above-captioned case (including all appeals) and, in the course thereof, relying in a general way upon his or her examination of CONFIDENTIAL or HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL material produced or exchanged in this Action; provided, however, that in rendering such advice and in otherwise communicating with his or her client, the attorney shall not disclose the contents of CONFIDENTIAL or HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL material produced by any other party or non-party.
